

BUILDING A THEOLOGICAL LIBRARY

REVISED EDITION 2017
DANIEL L. AKIN

WHY BUILD A BIBLICAL/THEOLOGICAL LIBRARY?

Books are to the minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ what tools are to the carpenter: the essentials of the trade. A call to ministry is a call to preparation, and the building of a ministry library is a must, not an option.

As the apostle Paul faced his impending death, he still remained a student, requesting of Timothy that he bring the books when he came to visit him in prison (2 Tim. 4:13). This booklet has been prepared for those who desire to follow in Paul's steps.

Warren Wiersbe offers some sound wisdom for this very task: "My books are my tools, and I use them. I cannot afford to be a book collector; neither the budget nor the diminishing shelf space ... permits such a luxury ... I enjoy my library. Each book is a friend that converses with and teaches me. Better to have fewer of the best books than to clutter your shelves with volumes that cannot serve you well. Above all, love your books, use them, and dedicate all you learn to the service of Jesus Christ." To that end we have provided more than 1,000 titles to assist you in building your library and faithfully serving our Lord. Most titles are written from an evangelical perspective, having been authored by individuals who affirm the full authority and inspiration of Scripture (Matt. 5:17-18; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Pet. 1:20-21).

While a good library is necessary as a solid foundation for ministry, training under godly men and women is also important (2 Tim. 2:2). You may be someone who senses God's calling for further study and preparation. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary exists for this very purpose, with a faculty and programs of study designed to enable the student to be a careful and equipped teacher of the God's Word. Whether your calling is to be a missionary or evangelist, pastor or teacher, counselor, educator or minister of music and worship, Southeastern Seminary is a community of faith which can better prepare you for service in the body of Christ.

Southeastern Seminary is committed to training men and women in sound evangelical scholarship to reach a lost world for Jesus Christ (Matt. 28:18:20). If God leads you our way, we will look forward to working with you.

"Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth." (2 Tim. 2:15).
